This aerial view of U-High reveals the sentinel-like tower which is its symbol. Within these walls, you, the students, have made a unique contribution to traditions and accomplishments of our school.

It was a year filled with moments of laughter, excitement, friendship, and study. Although many of these moments may have seemed insignificant, these were the things that made the year memorable. Whether cheering the team to victory, cramming for the quiz you just heard about, or having the time of your life at the dance, you will come to treasure these moments, for they made your year.

In this volume we have attempted to preserve these memories that you may never forget--YOUR YEAR.

There's a Freshman, have a seat.

Lynx basketball coach shows off his great talent (?).

A gift from his team.

U-High's "swinging" Pep Band.

Junior boys receive their football letters.

G.A.A.'s serious (?) sponsor.

Sophomore girls exhibit their vast talents on murals for the aftergame dance.

Homecoming Pep Assembly.

F.H.A. girls after a tiring day in St. Louis.

Chorus members after a hard performance.

Volley ball time at P.T.A.'s annual Ice Cream Social.

The football Lynxes were a "hard-luck" team this year. All season the services of various key players were lost through injuries and other difficulties. The team finished with a 3-3 season overall, and a 3-2 conference record.

The Lynxes were mainly a veteran squad, but many underclassmen are strong and talented. A lot of work was put into the team this year by both the players and the coaches, Doc Bencini and Bill Jackson, but a lot of profit was realized. As Coach Bencini says--"it was a successful season, made so by teamwork, sacrifice, and special effort."

Go get'em, Tommy.

As wrestling season rolled around, a small group of boys put on their sweat suits to defend the maroon and white. Because U-High failed to field a full team, it was difficult to win in overall competition. Although the team was small in numbers, it fought hard.

Under the excellent coaching of Dr. Stotlar, Mr. Paul, Mr. Mallard, and Mr. Plapp, the grapplers got much valuable experience. Since only two wrestlers will be lost by graduation, we can look forward to a fine team next year.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year the Lynx basketball Team was under the direction of a new coach, Mr. Bill Jackson. He brought some new ideas and a lot of spirit to the Lynx team.

Although the scores were not as impressive as they could have been, the Lynxes played some fine basketball.

Graduation this June will claim only three of the Lynxes and with the quality players who will be coming up from the J.V.'s, we should see a real fine season next year.

JUNIOR VARSITY

With another season passed, the Junior Varsity Lynxes end the year with a 17-4 record. High scores were, Chris Mercer and Bill Tally.

With the teamwork and ability that has been shown by the Junior Varsity Lynxes, the team's future looks promising.

FRESHMEN

The Freshman Lynxes, led by high scorer John Chaney, had a great season this year. They got off to a good start with their victory over Zeigler-Royalton, and then finished in similar style. When the yearbook went to press, the Freshman were 5-0 in their conference.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

And so ends another fine season for the Junior High Lynxes. The eighthgraders made a good showing with a 14-4 win. This led the Lynxes to an overall victory for the season even though they didn't place first in the conference.

The seventh grade played just as hard and went on to try for a first place victory in their conference.

In the annual eighth grade-freshman game, the eighth graders once again came to a near victory, but the freshmen proved better equipped to handle the job.

The Student Council, led by Julian McHale, Student Body President, has been very active this year. The Council hosted the Collinsville District Convention. Julian was district vice-president and Emma Jean Tally was district secretary. The council participated in the Bi-High Council with CCHS and sent delegates to the state convention in Chicago. They helped to make the year a big success by sponsoring such events as class, cheerleading, and homecoming queen elections, after game dances, and a girls' basketball game to bolster school spirit.

Dummy, copies, layouts, and bleeding are just a few words you would hear when talking to a member of the yearbook staff. Working on the TOWER is a job that requires energy, patience, responsibility and dedication. Anyone who works on the TOWER must be willing to spend many afternoons and weekends making layouts and writing copy. The editors must teach the staff the facts about creating the TOWER. Dr. Seiferth, the advisor, has spent all her free time working with the editors trying to make this yearbook the best. Special thanks goes to Ward Rice, our photographer, for his perseverance and tolerance.

EDITORIAL STAFF

The TOWER TIMES started out the new year with a new sponsor, Mr. John Traver. A bi-monthly paper, the TOWER TIMES is produced by University High students. The paper consists of articles which inform the student body of happenings such as basketball games, dances, and club news occurring at U-High.

Key Club has been busy this year selling refreshments at SIU's football games and participating in a district soap drive for the Dixon State Home for mentally retarded children. They also gave a Thanksgiving and Christmas basket of goods to a needy family. Key Club printed a directory of students and faculty.

Future Scientists

Science Club's goal is to encourage students with an interest in science. Thanks to Mr. Cummins and the officers, Science Club was very interesting and beneficial for the students this year. Some of the many activities included field trips, lectures by visitors and members of Science Club, and movies.

If you were to pass by the Studio Theater some Tuesday afternoon at 3:00, you would hear these words, "We are the Future Homemakers of America." This is the beginning of the FHA creed which is repeated by the members at the meetings. Some of their activities have included a melon feast, a trip to St. Louis, a reception for their mothers and fathers, and sending gifts to the patients at Anna State Hospital.

MIXED CHORUS

BOYS' CHORUS

ROW I: R. Crowell, C. Mercer, J. Stevenson. ROW II: Dr. Taylor, B. Aikman, D. DeJarnett, M. Bedford, B. Borkon. ROW III: J. Crenshaw, J. Holder, W. Kraft. ROW IV: J. Eisfelder, D. Heisler, R. Johnson, J. Keene.

Although this year's chorus dropped in quantity, the quality is still the best. Starting in the fall, with the choral clinic and continuing throughout the year with performances at Shryock, Christmas caroling at the Nativity Scene at Holden Hospital and competing in the contest held this year in Carbondale, boys, girls, mixed chorus and the two Madrigal groups rehearsed constantly under the direction of Mr. Taylor.

The Band Plays on

LETTER GIRLS

D. Tedrick, D. Leffler, J. Miller, V. Scott, E. Tally, V. McKeefery.

Dr. William Tarwater returned after a year's leave to direct U-High's band. This year the band performed in the SIU Homecoming parade, home football games and at contest. A few band members made up a spirited pep band which added much enthusiasm at the school pep assemblies and home basketball games.

Pep Club Arouses School Spirit

Promoting school spirit is the aim of Pep Club. To help encourage U. High's spirit, Pep Club has planned pep assemblies, advertised games and dances with posters, and sold booster pins. A mascot was added this year to help cheer the Lynxes to victory in basketball. Our peppy little Lynx was Barbara Buntен. With the hard work of the officers and enthusiastic members, Pep Club has proven itself a useful and necessary asset to keeping up U. High's spirit.

ROW I: N. Rahe, S. Lewis, J. Miller, B. Chaney. ROW II: J. Pratt, J. Keene, P. Jacobini, S. Ramp, V. McKeefery, S. Rasche, J. Heisler, A. Renzaglia, J. Smith, C. Wilkinson, D. Wiley. ROW III: N. Ross, M. Howards, M. Bradfield, V. Scott, J. McCord, M. Miller, D. Leffler, R. Davis, A. Vogler, J. Reed. ROW IV: B. Buntен, M. Pratt, A. Huffman, B. Franklin, C. Stotlar, P. Merchant, R. Young, M. Casey, T. Gillespie, B. Potter. ROW V: S. Chastain, J. Sexson, M. Gray, C. Neill, L. Scott, G. Burger, M. Davis, D. Lucas, M. Anderson, E. Potter, E. Matheson, A. Rist. ROW VI: S. Freeburg, K. Taylor, C. Morris, K. Bedwell, M. Widdows, J. Smith, R. Murphy, R. Lewis, J. Dunning, S. Pearce.

G.A.A.

Thanks to the planning of the officers and Miss Goller, GAA was a grand success this year. If one happened to be in the vicinity of the gym or playing field Friday after school, he was likely to find a group of enthusiastic girls dueling at hockey, volleyball or some other sport. They also had such outside projects as initiation in which all became expert trailblazers while tramping through the woods near Carterville.

Library

The members of Library Club this year worked hard to learn more about the library. Their aims were to create an interest in the library and the work involved in running it smoothly. They also have learned much about the career as a librarian.

ROW I: M. Weinacht, J. Dunning, Mrs. Melvin, J. Dunning.

Debate

This year the debaters practiced and debated at Community High School and at the Normal contest. The topic of debate this year was whether nuclear weapons should be controlled by an international organization.

ROW I: J. Arvin, B. Ogur. ROW II: R. Young, M. Schnipper.

“ROGER AND OUT”

The Radio Communications Club was started last year by a few students who were interested in Civil Defense and two-way communications. The club grew in membership and started new activities this year, such as: announcing the home football games and being an active member in the Jackson County Civil Defense storm warning net.

ROW I: W. Rice, D. Heisler, T. Dickey. ROW II: B. Chaney, P. Merchant, M. Greer, T. Holland. ROW III: S. Ramp, R. Lee, J. Smith, A. Iubelt.

It's Greek To Me!

RUSSIAN

This year a new language club, the Russian Club, joined U-High's activity roster. Under the supervision of their sponsor, Mr. Akins, the group met every other week to have discussions about Russia, her people and customs. Occasionally, the club had guest speakers, or viewed films about Russia.

ROW I: T. Petraitis, J. Henderson, N. Yates, K. Breland. ROW II: T. Easterly, Mr. Akins, J. McHale, C. Lawton.

SPANISH

An annual Christmas party, participating in the Pan American festival, and hearing speakers from many different Spanish countries are a few of the activities of Spanish Club. Led by Mrs. Bork, Spanish Club develops an interest in the language and customs of our Latin American neighbors.

ROW I: F. Alcorn, D. Tedrick, K. Bedwell, B. Ogur. ROW II: B. Buntin, A. Karlin, M. Gray, S. Chastain, G. Hartzog. ROW III: N. Ross, B. Chamberlin, M. Weihnacht, B. Franklin, L. Carpenter. ROW IV: D. Olmsted, J. Pollock, J. Smith, M. Benson, Mrs. Bork, R. Murphy.

FRENCH

The purpose of French Club is to let the students of U-High become more familiar with France; its language, customs, and way of life. They accomplish this by having speakers, and conducting meetings in French. They also sang Christmas carols in French at the Holden Hospital as one of their outside projects.

ROW I: B. Potter, J. Harrison, E. Potter, C. Campisi. ROW II: H. Harris, J. Wharton, J. Dunning, L. Williams, Miss Kupcis. ROW III: E. Edelman, M. Howards, J. Keene, D. Richards, P. Hadley.

CLASS OF 1965

Class officers: Alan Beveridge, Pres.; Kay Kilmstra, Vice-Pres.; Anne Rist, Sec.-Treas.

Seniors are slightly superior beings because of their vast amount of high school experience. They have endured years of testing, but have contributed to the school spirit, and to the peace of study hall. Seniors have learned to try anything once and often more than once in order to reach their goals. They have begun to accept the responsibility that becoming an adult must bring.

CLASS OF 1966

Class Officers: Bob Aikman, Pres.; Betty Chaney, Vice-Pres.; Linda Lampman, Sec.-Treas.

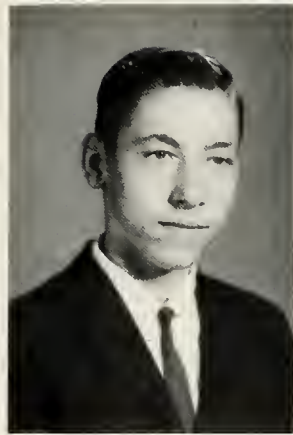

"Smile, Johnny"

1964 is the year the juniors began to feel their learned age and great importance. They received their drivers' licenses and voted in a Presidential election (mock style). They began to hear about and experience those definite signs of college: the P.S.A.T. and A.C.T. Most of all, increasing signs of age were evident as the juniors began accepting the responsibilities of upperclassmen and ascending the throne to Mighty Seniorhood.

CLASS OF 1967

Class Officers: Jim Olsson, Pres.; Mary Lou Anderson, Vice-Pres.; Sandy Rasche, Sec.-Treas.

Sophomores are those people who have completed the torture of their freshman year, and profess to be more learned, worldly, and wise. No longer the green class of last year, the sophomores claim to be more efficient, capable, and ready to hold their own against the mighty upperclassmen.

CLASS OF 1968

Class Officers: Miranda Pratt, Sec.-Treas.; John Downey, Pres.; Susie Young, Vice-Pres.

After a wonderful introduction into high school, namely initiation, a freshman can look forward to long, exciting, and fulfilling high school years ahead. Still young and innocent, freshmen can be counted on to sign up for all committees, join all clubs, and have the bubbling school spirit which brings them to every game. A freshman also can be counted on to supply noise and laughter wherever he goes. Freshman year will be one of bewilderment and change and always will be remembered as one of the best years at U-High.

As Knights and their Ladies Frolicked

Decorating the Goal Posts

Homecoming fun began on the evening of Oct. 15th with the coronation of the 1964 Homecoming Queen. The attendants and queen candidates walked in a spotlight, down the aisle of the darkened auditorium. When all the girls were assembled on stage, the traditional red velvet robe was placed on Kathy Taylor. Friday afternoon the Pep Club sponsored a lively pep assembly. That night the band and cheerleaders led a snake dance from school to the stadium where the Lynxes met Zeigler. The game was a disappointment since Zeigler won by one point. However, good spirits were restored at the dance in the University Ballroom immediately following the game. At midnight, after the Queen's Dance, the tired couples headed for home, full of the excitement of Homecoming, 1964.

A Swirl of Action on the Dance Floor

The Gentrys supplied the music for Camelot 1964.

The Great Ghost appeared at the Pep assembly to cast his evil spell on Zeigler.

Couples relax between dances.

Caught in a rare quiet moment, the Varsity Cheerleaders were: (in front) Debby Graper, Anne Rist, Susan Freeberg, and Marcia Miller; (behind) Kathy Taylor and Karen Bedwell.

BELLS

U. High's attendants to the queen were: Amy Huffman, Freshman; Debbie Graper, Sophomore; Marcia Miller, Junior.

This year's Christmas season Snowball dance, sponsored by Teen Town Board, was a special one for U-High. A U-High girl was elected queen for the first time in five years. Silver bells decorated the basement of the Carbondale Savings and Loan Building, where Emma Jean Tally was crowned at midnight by retiring queen, Jeanne Merz.

Retiring Queen, Jeanne Merz, congratulates new Queen, Emma Jean Tally.

NATIONAL MERIT WINNERS

These students were finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Competition: seated, Keith Beyler, and Barbara Ogur. Standing, Mike Casey and Richard Young.

The following students received National Merit Letters of Commendation: Eric Bedford, Daphne Richards, Jan Mark, Julian McHale, and Alan Beveridge.

SPRING '65

Two track members, David Juhlin (left), and Keith Beyler, represented U-High at the State track meet.

An outstanding track team is traditional at University High, and the '65 squad proved to be no exception. The team was headed by four seniors, Keith Beyler, Ron Murphy, Dave Juhlin, and Alphonso Robinson. The high point of the season was U-High's fine showing at the district meet at CCHS, and the advancement of two members, Beyler and Juhlin, to the state meet. Under the fine coaching of Dr. Stotlar, and through much hard work on the part of each member, this team has showed themselves to be a group of much determination, skill, and team spirit.

David Juhlin hits the tape as he captures the 440 to break a school record in the CCHS meet.

ROW I: R. Gates, T. Braniff, S. Brumley, D. Thomas, R. Murphy, D. Juhlin, K. Beyler, J. Smith, A. Robinson, H. Webb, Dr. Stotlar. ROW II: J. Downey, G. Dwyer, S. Nauman, D. Morrison, K. Portz, J. Vavra, B. Borkon, M. Bedford, W. Shoaff, G. Poston.

BASEBALL

ROW I: Mr. Jackson, W. Dwyer, R. Geilhausen, D. Heisler, C. Rhine, R. Tedrick, R. Alcorn, B. Aikman, J. Chaney. ROW II: B. Carter, J. Nunley, F. Surman, T. Higgins, C. Morris, B. Williams, J. Rist, H. Kinnard, G. Easterly.

Coach William Jackson, in his first year as U-High's baseball coach, reported that the Lynxes had a winning season. The 17 man squad was a comparatively young one this year, headed by only two seniors, Craig Rhine and Fred Alcorn. The rest of the team was made up of 9 juniors, 2 sophomores, and 4 freshmen. By the end of the season, the official record showed 4 wins against 8 losses. In spite of a shorthanded pitching staff, Tim Higgins and Craig Rhine turned in fine performances. The highlight of the season was the Elksville game, with U-High winning 7-4 in extra innings, and Higgins striking out 15 Elksville batters.

First baseman, Bob Aikman, receives throw for the put-out.

TO CONQUER"

"She Stoops to Conquer" by Oliver Goldsmith was presented as University School's all school play for the 64-65 year. The cast gave two performances on the evenings of April 23-24 under the direction of Thomas Sill. Tony Lumpkin, played by Evan McHale, was a carefree person whose mischievous actions were predominate in the things he did and said resulting in humorous episodes involving the other members of the cast. The extreme interest and work of both the cast and Mr. Sill was clearly seen in both of the fine performances given.

"Do you insult me, monster! I'll teach you to vex your mother, I will!"

"I have been threatened with a lover"

"Its all over--she's but a woman, you know"

"I loves' to hear him sing, 'cause he never gives us anything that's low!"

E DELTA QUEEN"

The Riverboat, "Delta Queen" provided a Southern atmosphere for the theme of Prom 1965. A banquet, dance, and the crowning of the queen, highlighted the evening. Dr. Carpenter served as guest speaker at the banquet. Later at the dance Danny Kagle entertained. The main feature was the crowning of Susan Freeberg as the 1965 Prom Queen. Operation Prom began at midnight when CCHS joined U-High at the University Center Ballroom. The Festivities ended with a breakfast.

EDITOR'S NOTE

As the 1965 TOWER Editor, I wish to thank all those who helped in producing this book. My staff and I received much valuable advice and support from our sponsor, Dr. Seiferth. I would also like to express my gratitude to Mr. D. V. Neunlist, who took our eleventh and twelfth grade pictures as well as some of our Activities pictures. To the Delmar Printing Company of Charlotte, North Carolina; to Mr. Eugene Vest, their representative, who took pictures of the seventh through tenth grade; to the S.I.U. Photographic Service; to the many Carbondale merchants who supported us through their ads; and to the students, faculty, and administration of University High School, I send my sincere thanks. A special thanks goes to the Office Staff here at University School for all the help and understanding they have given me and my staff. I want to wish much luck and success to the Editors for the 1966 TOWER!

Kay Ellen Klimstra
